NEWS FROM ANE DISTRICT CONFERENCE

October 8-9, 2010

Loeffler Chapel on Elizabethtown College Campus

Pastor Robert DiSalvio introduced himself as the first Italian moderator of ANE District. Phill Carlos Archbold, his former pastor in Brooklyn, preached at the Friday evening worship service. Music groups from Alpha and Omega, Germantown, and the Arabic congregation in Brooklyn, added to the racial and ethnic diversity on the stage. Overall speakers were dynamic and a variety of videos added to the spirit of the conference.

Two names on the slate of officers for the district were of special interest to LCoB: Robert Wintsch, formerly of our congregation, was called to be moderator-elect; Suzanne Schaudel will serve on the District Board and Commission on Nurture.

Juniata and Elizabethtown colleges reported remarkably good enrollment in their freshman classes. COBYS Family Services facilitated 38 adoptions and added an additional counselor to their staff to provide "attachment and trauma therapy" for foster children.

Undercurrents of tension could be felt throughout the conference related to dissent and division in the church over the issue of homosexuality. District delegates to Annual Conference announced that four "special response hearings for dealing with strongly controversial issues" have been scheduled for October. Over 200 people already signed up for the Lancaster County hearing that will be held at Lititz CoB on October 18.

Nineteen congregations with an average attendance of fewer than 65 have been invited to participate in a special retreat on revitalization, and the district is seeking partnerships between small churches and large churches.

LCoB delegates in attendance were Russ Adsitt, Linda Byers, Curtis Dehmey, Guy Wampler, Calvin Wenger, and Jay Wenger.

Lancaster Church of the Brethren is a working, worshipping, learning Christian community, open and accepting without discrimination or force in matters of belief and practice.

Brethren Highlights is published monthly by the Lancaster Church of the Brethren. The absolute deadline for the December issue is November 10, 2010

Most churches have a desire to grow in some way, shape or form. They want to grow deeper in their spiritual life, grow numerically in attendance and membership, or grow in ways to serve. The problem is that in many churches there have to be changes in order for growth to happen! And, too often there is strong resistance to the very changes that will foster the growth that the church desires.

Let me offer a different way of thinking about what needs to be changed. We need to ask questions that honestly looks at where we are and why any change is necessary. What will it take to live the change we would like to see? If we need to move from "here" to "there", what would "there" look like?

If church is about relationships, can we build new kinds of relationships with possible new members? Can we put ourselves in the shoes of people who are new to a church community and ask the kinds of questions they might ask? Think about our church...you are new here...and as you look around you are asking:

- "Can I make friends in this church?"
- "Is there a place where I will fit in?"
- "Does this church want or need me?"
- "Can I be me here?"

These are relational questions. They are questions about how much we care about what others have to offer. They are questions about being authentic and open to new voices and ideas, and about how open we are to change.

If the answer is "no", or a question mark, that means they will leave after a few months or sooner. If the answer is "yes", then what changes need to be made to create a church culture/environment where their "yes" is confirmed?

Are we a church that befriends, makes room at the table, desires the input others bring and gives them the freedom to be themselves?

Let us pray and give thanks for the church we were and are and are becoming in God's grace and guidance. Amen.
-Pastor Shreckhise

MORE THAN ENOUGH . . .

2011 Plan of Ministry

Celebration Sunday - November 7, 2010

"God is the true source of security in an insecure world...and He is the only One who satisfies in a world where we can never seem to get enough. And when we have Him – along with His promises for provision, protection and peace – we have "more than enough." *<sup>1</sup>

Our Ministry Teams, motivated by our vision and mission statements, and in humble gratitude to our Lord, have worked hard at setting goals and objectives for 2011 and now each one of us has an opportunity to consider how we will support the 2011 Plan of Ministry.

Please bring your Pledge Card in its envelope or mail it so it arrives for Sunday November 7 when we will bring our pledges to the altar in response to God's blessings in our lives and as an expression of our faith and devotion to Christ and His church.

Stewardship Ministry Team invites you to pray this prayer:

Lord, You are so generous. You have not only promised to meet my needs (Phil 4:19), but you have also vowed to give me the desires of my heart if I will simply delight myself in You (Ps 37:4). How marvelous that my needs are met not according to what I deserve but according to Your inexhaustible, limitless riches. You are able to do immeasurably more than all I could ask or even imagine. To You, my God and Father, be glory forever and ever (Eph 3:20). Amen.

More than enough...

II Corinthians 9:6-9 (New Living Translation)

<sup>6</sup> Remember this—a farmer who plants only a few seeds will get a small crop. But the one who plants generously will get a generous crop. <sup>7</sup> You must each decide in your heart how much to give. And don't give reluctantly or in response to pressure. "For God loves a person who gives cheerfully." <sup>8</sup> And God will generously provide all you need. Then you will always have everything you need and plenty left over to share with others. <sup>9</sup> As the Scriptures say,

"They share freely and give generously to the poor.

Their good deeds will be remembered forever."

Generosity entails freedom. Coerced generosity is a contradiction in terms. Paul asks the Corinthians to give generously out of their Christian freedom.

He is careful to emphasize that his appeal for generosity is not a command and that the Corinthians should not give out of reluctance or compulsion but as they have made up their minds. Paul is appealing to their new freedom found in Christ. But an unbridled freedom without direction and discipline will inevitably be co-opted by selfishness and greed.

God has freed us in Jesus Christ so that through the Holy Spirit we are free from the power of mammon so that we can be free to live a life of generosity.

The Thanksgiving season is about rejoicing in the blessings that God has provided, but let's be sure our focus is on the Lord of blessing – instead of the blessings!

We read in Luke 5:3-11 that Jesus told His disciples to go into the deep waters and let down their nets for fish. When they did, their nets were filled up with fish to the point of breaking. Being fishermen and businessmen, they may have been tempted to start doing business. Hey! think how much they could make!

But God had a different purpose. The disciples' occupation as fishermen was just a vehicle for God to demonstrate His great power and love. He wasn't blessing them with fish so that they would get excited about fishing — He was blessing them with fish so that they could get their eyes off their fishing and on to the greater call He had for them! Thankfully, they left the fishing business and went off with the Lord to do great and mighty things.

Let's make sure we're not getting up wrapped up in fish! We seek the Lord for His blessings, prosperity, and success. But true discipleship is focusing not on the blessings of the Lord, but on the Lord of the blessings!

We can rejoice in our blessings this Thanksgiving season, but let's not dwell on them! Let's set our eyes on the Lord and the calling He has for us. When He sees that we have pure and willing hearts, He will be faithful to use us to accomplish His glorious plan!

FOOD FOR THE HUNGRY

Kindness shown to the poor is an act of worship

The message below is from the Church of the Brethren denominational, Elgin, Illinois.

“The Global Food Crisis Fund (GFCF) is the primary way the Church of the Brethren assists hungry people in developing food security. For over 25 years GFCF has provided grants upwards of $400,000 annually for seeds, livestock, tools, and training directed to helping the poor develop sustainable agriculture. GFCF invests in small-scale economic development, joins efforts to improve diet and health practices, champions soil conservation, and promotes awareness-raising and advocacy on hunger issues. Its grants serve community development programs in 32 countries.

“Whether your gift is an individual contribution, an ongoing 2¢-a-meal collection at the family table, the offering of a congregation or camp, or a one-time donation or memorial in honor of a loved one, your support of the Global Food Crisis Fund upholds the biblical command to lift the burden of the oppressed. Moreover it honors God, for as stated in Proverbs 14:31, “kindness shown to the poor is an act of worship.” You are invited to join the Global Food Crisis Fund in living out the call to do justice, to help one’s neighbor in need, and to “draw out your soul to the hungry,” as Isaiah 58:10 puts it. Your gift will affirm and transform life from the grassroots up.”

As you know, 2/3s of our “2 Cents a Meal” offerings go to the Global Food Crisis Fund, and 1/3 goes to the Lancaster County Council of Churches Food Bank.

Let us show our kindness once again as we gather a great Thanksgiving offering for the poor on November 21.

DISASTER RELIEF VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

Outreach Ministry Team is encouraging more of our Congregation to get involved in the Disaster Relief Program. All of our members that have spent a week or more at a workcamp have returned with a feeling of fulfillment and joy in being able to extend a helping hand to people in need of a safe and comfortable home after experiencing a natural disaster.

The October Brethren Highlights contained an article entitled, “Do WE Do Enough?”, and a second article entitled, “Do Something”. Both of those articles were written to stimulate our thinking and challenge us to do more.

No matter which programs we as individuals chose to help with, there is always plenty to do and a lot of work to be done in God’s Kingdom.

Disaster Relief Volunteers are needed for Indiana flood recovery in Monon, Indiana on the following weeks; October 17-23, November 7-13, and December 5-11. These trips will be groups from the Atlantic Northeast District and will likely have volunteers from several local Brethren Churches. There will be more trips scheduled in 2011 for this area and we will notify our members as soon as the schedule becomes available.

The Hurricane Katrina building site, in Chalmette, Louisiana will remain open through 2011 and needs volunteers for the week of December 5-11. And a new home rebuilding site will be opening in Tennessee in the area devastated by a flood in May of this year. Schedules will be available soon as plans become more finalized for this site.

Another great opportunity will be the Haiti Earthquake Response Workcamps. At the present time, there are three workcamps scheduled with the possibility of more trips being scheduled.

The present schedule is as follows;

November 6-13, 2010

January 23-30, 2011

March 14-20, 2011

Please see the Outreach Ministry Team Bulletin Board in the lower hallway for more details. Please feel free to call Dave Creighton at 397-7267 with any questions.

LIBRARY LINES

This month we are promoting a very exciting, worthwhile video that has been donated to the Library! The title is "Paper Clips"! Roger Ebert of the Chicago Sun-Times writes: "It is Straightforward Heartfelt and Genuine".

When the students of Tennessee's Whitwell Middle School began studying the Holocaust as a way to learn about tolerance and diversity, nobody could have predicted the results. In 2001, the Paper Clip Project culminated in a unique memorial that changed the lives of those who created it, as well as touching Holocaust survivors and countless communities.

Because Norwegians invented the paper clip and used it as a symbol of solidarity against the Nazis, students started collecting them to help visualize such vast numbers of victims. As word spread online and in the media, paper clips poured in from around the world. This inspiring documentary shows how even small-town students and educators can teach the world powerful lessons.

This is a MUST SEE video - a powerful reminder that "from little acorns, giant trees are born"!

In a typical year, Žofie Vokálková is featured in over 150 solo and chamber music concerts. A Prague native, Žofie is a graduate of Prague Conservatory. A woman was asked by a coworker, "What is it like to be a Christian?"

The coworker replied, "It is like being a pumpkin. God picks you from the patch, brings you in and washes all the dirt off of you. Then He cuts off the top and scoops out all the yucky stuff. He removes the seeds of doubt, hate, greed, etc., and then He carves you a new smiling face and puts His light inside of you to shine for the entire world to see."

PMT ENERGY TIP OF THE MONTH –

November PMT Energy Tip – Let the light shine in! As the temperatures drop, take advantage of passive solar heating by opening your blinds and curtains during the day. The sun shining through your windows helps to heat your home. If your windows are dirty from summer rain, dust and pollen, clean them. This will allow more sun in. Be sure to close your curtains or blinds at night to reduce drafts and heat loss.
