STARLIGHT TEA EPIPHANY CONCERT - SONGS OF JOY AND PEACE!

Each year at LCOB, we celebrate the music of Advent, Christmas and the new year with our Starlight Tea Epiphany Concert. This year's concert is Sunday, January 12, at 7:00 p.m. in the sanctuary. It is wonderful, after the hustle and bustle of family celebrations for Christmas and New Year's Day, to pause and take one more look at the music of the season, in a much more relaxed frame of mind!

This year, our concert will begin with a wonderful handbell arrangement of the classic hymn, O Come, All Ye Faithful, arranged by Michael R. Keller and rung by the Carillon Bell Choir. We'll then look to the season of Advent, with the Chancel Choir singing music by Jay Rouse (Come, Emmanuel, Come), Emery DeWitt (The Angel Gabriel), Christopher Aaspas (As the Dark Awaits the Dawn) and Dan Forrest (The First Noel).

We'll continue with a set we've titled FIVE BY RUTTER. British composer John Rutter is much-beloved by churches worldwide, and this set gathers five of his most famous compositions: Wexford Carol, Donkey Carol, Angel Tidings, Cradle Song, and the Star Carol.

Flutist Jana MacKay, oboist Jill Marchione and bassoonist Robin Plant will join us for Ander Öhrwall's Gaudete. The Latin word gaudete means "rejoice," and this music definitely does that, with a set of readings and carols from various countries dating to the Medieval and Renaissance periods. The accompaniment by our guest woodwind trio greatly adds to the celebration! Although the title is in Latin, the sung text is in English.

Our concert will end with a set that is all about peace - surely appropriate for LCOB as we start a new year so deeply in need of peace. Felix Mendelssohn's How Lovely Are the Messengers That Bring Us the Gospel of Peace will remind us of the peace of Christ. The spiritual How Long? by Pepper Choplin asks the question, "When will peace come?" The concert will end with perhaps the most profound prayer for peace in all of music: Dona Nobis Pacem (Grant Us Peace) from J. S. Bach's masterwork, the B Minor Mass.

Admission is free, with a free-will offering taken. Please join us as we celebrate our faith with joyous music! --Emery Dewitt

PRAYER BREAKFAST 28TH ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION

The Wednesday Morning Prayer Breakfast at Lancaster Church of the Brethren began January 15, 1986, with 16 worshipers on an 8 degree morning. This initiative was the inspiration of David Hosler and T. Norwood (Woody) Herr. With few exceptions, the Wednesday Prayer Breakfast has occurred weekly at LCOB ever since.

On Saturday morning, January 11, 2014, the 28th Anniversary Prayer Breakfast will be held in the Family Life Center at 8:00 a.m. for breakfast and 8:30 a.m. for prayers and meditations. Everyone is welcome and encouraged to attend. While midweek, early mornings may not be possible for some, a Saturday morning is usually suitable for everyone. The program is expected to last about 50 minutes and will focus on how we all can identify and care for the ones Christ named as "the least of these." Matthew 25:35-40

Meditations, Readings, Prayers and meaningful recollection from prayer breakfasts past will be part of the program. The guest speaker of the day will be Dennis W. Felty, President of Keystone Human Services. He was the co-founder of Keystone in 1972; now a family of non-profit organizations committed to helping people with disabilities become valued and contributing members of the community.

A hot breakfast will be served, so an approximate count will be helpful. Please contact the Church Office (717-397-4751) and simply give your name and the number of people expected to attend with you. Sign-up sheets can also be found in the Gathering Place & Church Office.

Again, ALL ARE WELCOME to attend and encouraged to bring a neighbor.

--David Hosler, Prayer Breakfast Coach

FROM THE DIRECTOR OF MUSIC'S DESK

J've been thinking a lot about GRATITUDE lately. Of course, the season of Thanksgiving, just passed as I write this, has something to do with it. But even more than that, is it's a pervasive sense of the beauty and fragility of life, and the joy we should experience as God's gift to us. May I take a moment to enumerate?

I AM GRATEFUL FOR THIS CONGREGATION. When I came to work as part of the LCOB staff in July of 2004, I had plenty of job experience, but it was my first time to work for a church. Imagine the gratitude that Mary Ellen and I felt when we realized that this would be far more than just a place of employment. Within our first month here, we decided that we wanted to join this congregation, to be part of this warm and thoughtful group of people, dedicated to service and to each other. Thank you, thank you, thank you!

I AM GRATEFUL FOR OUR MUSIC, AND FOR THOSE WHO MAKE IT. It's hard to even express how much joy our musical volunteers bring to me. Of course, making music together is one of the most joyous things that we humans can do together, but the groups of musicians in this church constantly move me to thanks with their dedication, talent and plain hard work. Whether choristers, bell ringers, Morning Psalm instrumentalists and singers, or our precious children who sing so joyously under Jamie's direction, I can't imagine our worship life without music. And what a dear friend and colleague I have found in Margaret Marsch! She is such a fine organist and accompanist – I hope you regularly thank her for her leadership.

I AM GRATEFUL FOR FRIENDS. Recently, Mary Ellen and I had a terrible loss when two of our closest friends, husband and wife, were killed in a motorcycle accident. I was so grateful for the many expressions of care that we received from those around us. And as time has passed since their death, I find that my gratitude for the decade that we knew them has grown and grown. Those memories help soften the loss, as I remember with gratitude all that they meant to us.

I AM GRATEFUL FOR GOD'S GRACE! All of the above, and all that we hold dear, flow from God's love. If we can just pause and ponder our lives with gratitude, how can we help but want to share that grace in service and love to all around us? So let's make a New Year's resolution together: EVERY DAY in 2014, I will express thanks to God and to those around me!

-Emery DeWitt, Director of Music

WEDNESDAY NIGHT LIVE

January 22 – April 9, 2014

WNL will run 12 weeks this time. As is our custom, we will gather at 5:00 for a tasty supper and fellowship in the Family Life Center. There is no charge for the meal, but donation baskets are provided on each table. After supper there are activities for children and adults. In addition to rehearsals of the Carillon Bell Choir, Chancel Choir, and Morning Psalm Worship Team, the following activities are scheduled: 6:00-6:45: Music-making fun for children ages 4 & up, led by Jamie Nace in Room 219. 6:15 -7:15: Adult “classes” in Rooms 162-163.

There will be two series of adult classes:

Jan. 22 – Feb. 19: Bob Cooper, coordinator of a network in Lancaster for children of incarcerated parents, will present a five-week series based on his book, Hearing the Cries, Faith and Criminal Justice. This will be of special interest to members of our congregation as they prepare for involvement in prison ministry. Bob will provide free copies of his book to all class participants. Anyone wanting to start reading before the class begins can get a copy from Al Hansell. (hansell2@comcast.net or 285-7724)

Feb. 26 – April 9: WNL BIBLE QUIZ BOWL. Bible Quiz Bowl competition is fun! This exciting event will enable everyone to participate, either as a competitor or as part of an enthusiastic, appreciative audience. Eight teams of three players will compete in a single-elimination tournament. One match between two teams will be held each week, starting Feb. 26, culminating with the championship round on April 9.

Each round will consist of teams being asked twenty “toss-up” questions, each worth 10 points. A buzzer system will be utilized so participants can buzz in when they feel that they have the answer—correct or not. When a toss-up question is answered correctly, the answering team gets to respond to a three-part “bonus” question, each part worth 10 points.

The match continues until all of the toss-up questions have been asked, and the team with the highest score is declared the winner. The winning team will move on to the next round, and the losing team will join the spectators to cheer on the remaining teams. Bob Frick will serve as moderator, and well-known members of the congregation will serve as team captains.

During January, team captains are being chosen and volunteers will be recruited to serve as team members. If you would like to serve on one of the teams, please contact Bob Frick or a member of the WNL Committee (Bev Angle, Megan or Tim Lester, or Chuck Denlinger). We look forward to your participation, either as a team member or as part of a supportive audience.

--Chuck Denlinger

FROM LITTLE TO MUCH

The story of the loaves and fishes is known to be the only miracle included in all four books of the Gospel. In both Matthew and Mark, as second, a similar story is told again, with seven loaves and 4,000 people. And in both Matthew and Mark the story comes up a third time, when the disciples say they have no bread and Jesus reminds them of the first two incidences, saying "Do you not understand?"

Clearly the great teacher wanted to emphasize the importance of leadership and understanding of stewardship as an essential part of building and providing for a church community. Stewardship leaders should know the resources are present among the people and must help the community recognize and tap their abundance in responsible ways.

The disciples begin with a half-empty mindset. They are in a deserted place with thousands of needy people and immediately the conversation goes to money: not having enough to buy what is needed; send them away to buy their own; how can this be done? Much hand-wringing and gnashing of teeth, whining and complaining goes on among the disciples in trying to address the problem. Confidence wavers and anxiety levels spike. Sound familiar?

Each time the disciples come to Jesus, he calmly tells them, "They need not go away; you give them something to eat." They come back expressing more doubts, and Jesus asks, "How many loaves have you? Go and see."

In the story, Jesus wisely instructs his disciples to organize the people into smaller groups of 50 people. The leader must also have a vision and system to help the community meet its needs, effectively manage their resources, and take care of one another.

In John's telling, it is a child who makes the personal transformation. A child has a supper of five loaves and two fish and offers it to Jesus and the disciples. Could it be possible that young boy was the only one among the 5,000 who brought food with them? Perhaps the boy was the only one who looked into his own basket and saw what he had, instead of what he didn't have and was willing to take action. The boy saw the need and knew that he had something to share.

And, so all ate and were filled. May it be so!!
--Frank Fox, Stewardship Chair
